ONLINE TALENT AND SENIOR PRODUCER

Nathan is an experienced audio and video talent and writer, creating fun, thoughtful, and interactive content. He is an exceptional story navigator, people connector, community builder, and big dream explorer.

He is the host and senior producer of the Bridging Chicago Podcast, the premier Chicago based community and social podcast brought by the SATC | Solution Center. With a microphone and camera as his tools, Nathan explores the experiences and achievements of Chicago business, charity and community leaders. He believes that everyone's story has value, and by sharing these stories, even if it is just with one other person, we can inspire change in our communities.

SENIOR LEGAL ASSISTANT

Nathan is also a senior legal assistant at SATC | Law, where his focus is on helping clients, assisting lawyers, and making everyone feel welcomed. Nathan is a valued asset to the firm's litigation and transactional teams. He continues to branch out into new areas, including assisting with IT, marketing, social media management and administration.

He also enjoys cooking, baking, volleyball and advocating for the LGBTQIA+ community.
